

Welcome to MAI THAI

Thai food encapsulates an enormous variety of tastes and spices. It brings together some of the cooking traditions from all over South East Asia. It is a celebration by people who love their food and count eating as being one the great pleasures in life.

Thai food can be very spicy or mild, but it is never purely and simply hot. Numerous spices are used to enhance the flavour and improve the taste, but never to conceal it. The most important spice for any dish is chilli, but there is far more to Thai cooking than chilli. herbs as well as spices like Coriander, garlic, pepper, ginger, tamarind, mint, basil and pandan are all used to create the perfect mouth watering dishes served in cuisine.

Thai's do order selections of dishes and share them together, as an accompaniment. Thai people with almost always have rice or noodles along with all dishes. We hope you enjoy your meals!
